

Lines in the Sand

Presented By: Diane Kashin, Ed.D., RECE,

Renown author, teacher, blogger and mentor.

This interactive workshop is designed to promote reflection on the role of pedagogical leaders who “rise by lifting others”. At the same time, pedagogical leaders know when to draw their line in the sand when it comes to practices that limit possibilities. The intention of the workshop is to inspire critical reflection and deep thinking about how learning happens.

Monday January 20, 2020

6:15pm-8:15pm

Registration 6:00pm

Health and Family Services, 435 Grand Ave. W. Chatham, Room 301
(use side parking lot and enter through main doors of HFS)

This is a free workshop intended for all professionals working with children in early years settings.

Feel free to bring a snack/drink.

Please register

<https://www.chatham-kent.ca/CKProfessionalDevelopment>

1.866.720.7975