

The Super Power

of Sharing Stories with Young Children

Songs, Stories, Listening, Pretend Play...

What is Your Super Power?

What we BELIEVE about children, the songs, stories, and props we OFFER children, and the way we INTERACT with children matters to how they behave, and what they learn – both now, and throughout their lives.

Join Martha Kovack, Early Learning Specialist with Sound Readers® to learn how singing songs, telling stories, active listening, and incorporating more pretend play can bring the solution to almost every problem. Come and be inspired to connect with children more, direct their actions less, let go of control, and watch the magic happen!

Saturday, Oct 5 9:00-12:00

Registration: 8:45 - 9:00

County Building, 435 Grand Avenue W. Chatham (Room 301. Side door entrance)
