

Presents

Household Hazardous Waste Day

Saturday, September 14, 2019

8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Drop Off Locations:

Chatham:

Chatham Public Works Garage

25 Creek Road

Chatham Twp:

Chatham Twp. Public Works Garage

10137 Greenvalley Line

Tilbury:

Tilbury Public Works Garage

4 Tower St.

Acceptable Materials:

Biohazardous – Needles from residents only

Corrosive – Batteries, Drain Cleaners, Oven Cleaners,

Flammable – Gasoline, Paints, BBQ Starter, Oils, Solvents

Fluorescent Lights – Bulbs and Tubes only

Reactive – Pool Chemicals, Ammonia, Bleach

Toxic – Pesticides, Rat Poison, Pharmaceuticals, Cleaning Fluids

- BBQ Propane Tanks (up to 30 pounds only) and Batteries will also be accepted.

Unacceptable:

Commercial/Industrial/Agricultural Wastes, Infectious or Radioactive Wastes, PCB's, Ammunition, Propane Tanks (> 30 pounds), computers, TV's, electronics, explosives and Empty Containers will NOT be accepted.

How:

- All materials must be in clearly-labelled, sealed containers no larger than 20 litres (Containers will not be returned)
- Do not mix different products together
- Needles must be delivered in rigid puncture-proof containers  (residents only)
- The maximum quantity accepted is a total of 50 Litres of waste material

Please Note:

If hazardous waste products are placed in the garbage they can possibly injure garbage collectors and cause environmental damage. Do the right thing and bring these items to the drop-off locations listed above. Let the experts handle them for free!

Questions can be directed to: Waste and Recycling Services at (519) 360-1998