

Join the Chatham-Kent Black Historical Society & Black Mecca Museum on Saturday, February 8 at 10:30 am at Chatham Branch, Chatham-Kent Public Library

We will share the children's book "Talkin' About Bessie: The Story of Aviator Elizabeth Coleman." This book tells the story of female trailblazer Bessie Coleman, the first African-American female pilot. Participants will then make an airplane. Drop in, no registration required. Open to all ages.

